Attractive alternative to a common sight

Wilbert's temporary grave marker offers your families a durable, dignified alternative to the traditional temporary cemetery marker. This attractive white marble marker is designed to serve as an attractive, temporary grave marker while the permanent gravestone is being designed or fabricated. Personalized text and images can be engraved on the marker. Once the cemetery memorial is in place, the Wilbert marble marker can become a permanent keepsake to be used as the family wishes.

When most temporary grave markers look like that...

Why not give your families something that looks like this....
